ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In writing this book, I have received a lot of help from a variety of people. First and foremost, I want to thank William O'Grady for his insightful comments on the earlier drafts of this book and his constant encouragement over the years. I would also like to thank Ying-che Li for providing me with detailed page-by-page comments on the entire manuscript. I own my gratitude to Roderick A. Jacobs for his kind help at various stages of my study. His scholarly expertise in cognitive linguistics has always been a great inspiration to me.

My debt is also to Byron W. Bender, Yi-Leng Chen, Hsiu-Chuan Liao, Cheng-zhi Chu, Hui-hua Hwang, and Kazumi Yoshihara, who helped me generously with their comments on draft versions of parts or the whole of the book.

I would like to gratefully acknowledge the fellowship provided for this research by Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation.
